Newly elected board members take oath of office Officers for the board also elected

The Pattonville Board of Education swore in three newly elected board members during its meeting on April 12. Incumbents Keith Gillming and Ron Kuschel, along with new board member Cindy Candler, took the oath of office during the meeting. All three were elected to the board during the April 5 election.

Board members also elected new officers and representatives for the board. Pat Bryant and Ron Kuschel were reelected as president and vice president, respectively. Ruth Petrov was named secretary of the board, representative to the Pattonville Education Foundation and delegate to the Missouri School Boards Association (MSBA). Keith Gillming was named alternate delegate to MSBA. Ron Kuschel was reelected as Pattonville's representative on the Governing Council of the Special School District. He was also recently named by the Governing Council as their new chairman. Ralph Stahlhut was named alternate to the Governing Council. The board also recognized Jeff Fitterling, who was secretary of the board, for his three years of service to Pattonville.
