Assistants hired for Pattonville middle schools

The Pattonville Board of Education recently hired two new assistant principals for its middle schools. They began their new roles July 1, 2005.

Jerona Washington was selected as a new assistant principal at Holman Middle School. Washington was an administrative intern at Southwest Middle School in the Parkway School District and taught world literature, honors world literature and American literature at McCluer South-Berkeley High School. She has also previously taught in the Hazelwood and Fort Zumwalt school districts. Washington holds a bachelor's degree in secondary education-English from the University of Missouri-Columbia, as well as a master's degree in educational administration from Lindenwood University.

Mark Houston was chosen as the new assistant principal at Pattonville Heights Middle School. Houston currently serves as assistant principal in the Riverview Gardens School District and previously taught social studies in the same district. Houston holds a bachelor's degree in education (secondary education, social studies) from the University of Missouri-St. Louis and a master's degree in educational leadership from Saint Louis University.
