

Students honored for exemplary attendance

Thirty-two eighth-graders in the Pattonville School District have been honored for maintaining exemplary attendance during the 2006-07 school year. The Pattonville school-business partnership office awarded these students with $50 U.S. savings bonds to honor their dedication to academic success. In order to be eligible for the award, students could miss no more than one day of school.