

Pride of Pattonville

Pattonville's Most Prestigious Honor

Pride of Pattonville awards are given to recognize excellence of performance, service, character and contributions demonstrated by those who serve Pattonville.

* Who Should Be Nominated?

Any district employee, parent or other friend of Pattonville is eligible to receive a Pride of Pattonville award.

* What Are the Considerations?

- service to the district above and beyond the call of duty
- variety and years of service
- support of the total district and participation in its functions
- excellence in job performance as a staff member or volunteer

* Who Will Make the Selections?

A screening committee consisting of Pride of Pattonville award recipients from the last two years makes the selection from the nominations submitted. A maximum of 10 awards is given each year.

* How Will the Award Be Announced?

The screening committee will notify the recipients of their selection at least one week before the annual Appreciation Night on May 5 when the awards will be presented. The names of the Pride of Pattonville recipients will be publicized prior to Appreciation Night.

Everyone is invited to attend this awards program.
